

Presenting Author Agreement

SPEAKER'S RELEASE

If accepted,

- I understand that I will be required to register for the Congress no later than May 2, 2014, to confirm my acceptance and be included in the Congress Program and Book of Abstracts and if I do not register by the deadline I will not be included.
- I understand that I will be responsible, at my cost, to attain the necessary travel documentation to enter Canada and will initiate any applications with sufficient time to meet the necessary deadlines.
- I will adhere to the deadlines presented to me upon receipt of a letter of acceptance.
- I understand that if I am unable to meet my obligations to present, that I will notify the Congress Management Office immediately in order to allow an opportunity for a replacement to be found.

PRIVACY, DATA SECURITY AND LICENSE TO PUBLISH POLICY

The International Union of Crystallography (IUCr) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the confidentiality of your personal information.

How the IUCr collects personal information

The IUCr activities require the handling of personal information and hence the IUCr collects personal information. This information may be collected from paper forms received through the postal services or by fax, or electronically through registration on the IUCr Web Site.

The information may be provided by the individuals themselves or by third parties acting on behalf of individuals (e.g. an agent submitting an abstract).

The ways in which the IUCr collects personal information are:

- When you register personal details when creating or updating your account
- When you, or someone on your behalf, submits proposals or content in connection with scientific (e.g. Abstracts submission)
- When an association affiliated to the IUCr supplies the IUCr with details of their Members' personal information

What personal information is collected by the IUCr

In order for your request, application, etc. to be processed, Title, First Name(s), Family Name(s), Full Postal Address, Email address must be provided. Other information may be requested to help identification (e.g. date of birth), to contact you in case of need (telephone and fax), or to provide you with appropriate products and services (e.g. Travel Grants Programs).

The Profile page enables you to manage your personal information.

Email addresses

For your convenience and security, your email address is unique to you in the system and we do not permit more than one account per person to avoid confusion. This is to ensure that communications, which are sent to you personally, are not read by others, and that others do not gain access to the information in your account.

Disclosure of Information and Marketing

The IUCr complies with the Privacy Act 1980-81-82-83, c. 111, Sch. II "1" and takes all reasonable care to prevent any unauthorized access to your personal data.

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to others. We may supply your information to our contractors to perform specific services (such as to the publishers to deliver IUCr 2014 Book of Abstract). Otherwise, the IUCr does not disclose personal information to any other person or organization without your consent.

Right of access to your IUCr information

You have the right to access, amend, and oppose the use of your personal data. You have direct control over the information in your personal profile. You can access and change this information at any time from your profile page.

If you want to know exactly what personal information the IUCr holds on you, you can obtain it. If it transpires that the information is inaccurate, or you wish to oppose its use in future, the IUCr will make the necessary amendments and confirm that these have been made.

Data security

To protect your information, the IUCr uses an industry standard security protocol called Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) to encrypt the transmission of sensitive information between you and our website.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to your computer's hard disk for record keeping purposes. They are small text files that a website can use to recognize repeat users and facilitate their ongoing access to, and use of, the site. They do not pose a threat to your system or files. You can set your computer to reject cookies. However, if you do choose to disable cookies, you will not be able to use the online services offered.
